NSWAA PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Our last Annual General Meeting (AGM) was held over 19 months ago, and I want to take a moment to acknowledge the financial challenges we've faced with the shift in our financial year, as well as the impact of the rising cost of living on all of us. That said, the past 19 months have been incredibly active for woodchopping, with over 120 woodchops taking place during this time. I want to express my heartfelt thanks to all our associations for their dedication and enthusiasm for woodchopping.

We recently held our AGM for the 2025 – 2026 period, and I am thrilled to welcome our new committee members to the New South Wales Axemen's Association. This meeting took place online, with more than 30 attendees participating. While it was not our usual in-person gathering, the change in the financial year made it necessary to take this route. We did explore various options for a central meeting location, but unfortunately, we could not find a date/venue that suited everyone. I appreciate your understanding as we continue to find ways to improve our online meetings and make them more effective.

I am excited to announce that Kylie Gillam has stepped into the role of Secretary/Treasurer, and Cassie Graham has joined the committee. Additionally, Madeleine Kirwan-Edwards will serve as the AAA representative for NSW, while Alan Scrivener, Ashleigh Marsh, and David Reumer will be our selectors. All other positions were retained, except for Don Brown and James Livingston. I want to thank James for his time and contributions to the NSWAA committee. It is also important to recognise the remarkable dedication of Don Brown, who has spent over 30 years on the NSWAA committee and has held nearly every position imaginable. Thank you Don for your immense contributions, and we wish you all the best in your next chapter.

Some of the highlights the NSWAA achieved in 2025 include:

- Completing the NSW U21 tour to Gatton, Queensland, for the second time. Shout-out to Blake and Ashleigh for their hard work in organising and mentoring our young talent.

- Updating and approving the NSWAA constitution, which will be available for everyone to view on our website.
- Kicking off discussions to create a statewide handicap system.
- Establishing an inaugural NSW Women's stateside with a tri-series scheduled for the Royal Canberra Show in February 2026.

Additionally, our tour to New Zealand was a fantastic success! Congratulations to all competitors for making NSW proud. A special thank you goes to Madeleine Kirwan-Edwards and Trish Marsh for organising the NSW stateside uniforms and merchandise. I especially appreciate Trish for her diligent management of this, often under tight deadlines and unexpected changes.

We could not have achieved these milestones without the hard work of our committee. Thank you all for joining me on this journey. I know that change can sometimes be challenging, and just because something works well does not mean we cannot find an even better way to do things. Throughout the past 19 months, our committee has been dedicated to pushing the boundaries and improving woodchopping in NSW and the Australian Capital Territory.

I urge the associations to increase membership by hosting 'Come and Try' days, as well as events focusing on women in woodchopping and Axekids. These initiatives can significantly boost attendance and ensure our voices are heard by the government regarding our group's needs.

Keep an eye out in 2026, as an event of unprecedented significance will be open to all members.

Shaun O'Connor

President, NSWAA

NSW v NZ SOUTH ISLAND 2025

On Thursday 13 November, our NSW Team commenced their first of three days of competition at the Royal A&P Show of New Zealand, held in Christchurch.

Team members were: Noel Marsh (Manager and Captain), Blake Marsh, Phillip Waters, Curtis Bennett, Mitch Scrivener, Austin Scrivener, Lachlan Bryce and Madeleine Kirwan-Edwards.

The team contested the NSW v New Zealand South Island tri-series relay over three days, experiencing every weather condition NZ could throw at them.

"It's always a privilege and an honour to compete in Christchurch and this year was no exception. Our team was full of sportsmanship and pride and we took home the series with a 3 – 0 win against the South Island," said Noel. "A huge thank you to the show society and organisers for another great few days of competition, friendship and banter."

NSWAA competitors also came home with some great individual results, some of which include: Maddie and Ashleigh Marsh teaming up to place equal first in the Jill & Jill Sawing; Noel and Maddie winning the Jack & Jill Sawing, Curtis Bennett winning the Standing Block Championship; Ashleigh Marsh the Ladies Underhand Championship; and Austin Scrivener taking out the Tree Championship with Blake second and Mitch third. Congratulations all.

A special mention to Patricia Marsh for her endless work behind the scenes.
